

Keep the no-call list going, but make it permanent - once on it, you remain on it. None of this renewing your status every year or so.